

Our recent Command Safety Program Assessment went very good but there was a few problems spotted by the inspection team. Seems we need to do a better job at reporting Industrial Hygiene issues! Industrial hygiene exposures can be serious. Examples include noise, heat, cold, fumes, chemicals, and radiation. If you feel you are working near an unreported industrial hygiene exposure make sure you ask questions and report the hazard to your Safety Representative immediately!

